

Washington
Financial

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
CONTACT: ELIZABETH I. GUERRIERI
(724) 206-1021

PRESS RELEASE

Washington Financial Awards 11 Scholarships

WASHINGTON, PA- To help offset the costs of higher education, Washington Financial awarded scholarships to 11 area students. Each of these recipients demonstrates outstanding commitment to their academics and communities.

Alyssa Crile

Ms. Alyssa Crile graduated from Trinity High School. She is actively involved in the Dairy Princess and the Third United Presbyterian Church Youth Group. Ms. Crile will attend Waynesburg University and major in Early Childhood and Special Education.

David Fisher

Mr. David Fisher graduated from Washington High School. He volunteers at the City Mission, Mercy Behavioral Health and Three Rivers Youth. In the fall, Mr. Fisher will attend Community College of Allegheny County and study English.

Kelly Kendrick

Ms. Kelly Kendrick graduated from Chartiers Houston. She is actively involved in the Leo Club and volunteers at the Humane Society. She plans to study English Education at Indiana University of Pennsylvania.

Kristina Kendrick

Ms. Kristina Kendrick graduated from Chartiers Houston. She works closely with Solomans Steelers Cheerleaders and plans to attend Embry-Riddle Aeronautical University where she'll major in Aerospace Engineering.

Not
Pictured

Rachel Lewis

Ms. Rachel Lewis graduated from Washington High School. She volunteers at the Central Assembly of God as a Preschool Assistant and plans to attend California University of Pennsylvania.

Olivia McClay

Ms. Olivia McClay graduated from McGuffey High School. She is actively involved with Oglebay Good Zoo, American Heart Association, peer mentoring and Teen Action Club. Ms. McClay plans to attend James Madison University to study Geology and Environmental Sciences.

Not
Pictured

Sarah Miller

Ms. Sarah Miller graduated from McGuffey High School. She is actively involved in the Girls Scouts' Foreign Language Program, Day Camp and Powder Puff Derby. In the fall, she plans to study Engineering at the University of Pittsburgh.

Kayla Ward

Ms. Kayla Ward graduated from Canon-McMillan High School. She is actively involved in Meals on Wheels, the Prom Fashion Show, and works in the Guidance Office. Ms. Ward plans to attend Wittenberg University and major in Biology.

Christopher White

Mr. Christopher White graduated from Fort Cherry High School. He volunteers at the Hickory United Presbyterian Church Youth Ministries. Mr. White will attend Ohio State University and study Biomedical Engineering.

Kaitlin Wiegmann

Ms. Kaitlin Wiegmann graduated from Peters Township High School. She volunteers at the Washington Hospital, Campus Connections and Children's Therapy Center. Ms. Wiegmann will attend Slippery Rock University to study Exercise Science.

Washington
Financial

Timothy Woods

Mr. Timothy Woods graduated from Trinity High School. He volunteers at the Awana Clubs, Reach Work Camp and the Central Blood Bank. He plans to attend Liberty University where he will major in English and minor in Secondary Education.

As a community-minded company, Washington Financial Bank believes that being a good corporate citizen means taking an active role in our communities. The Scholarship Fund Program marks one way the Bank reinvests in this community. More information on the Scholarship Fund Program can be obtained through local high school guidance offices or at mywashingtonfinancial.com.

-END-