

Washington
Financial

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
CONTACT: ELIZABETH I. GUERRIERI
(724) 206-1021

PRESS RELEASE

Washington Financial awards 11 scholarships

WASHINGTON, PA- Washington Financial awarded 11 scholarships to help local students offset the costs of higher education. Scholarships are awarded each year based primarily on academic achievement and community service. This year's recipients are:

Celeste Calabro

Ms. Celeste Calabro is a graduate of Canon-McMillan High School. She is actively involved in marketing the website www.he-is-listening.com and assisting with worship services. Ms. Calabro plans to attend West Liberty and major in Nursing.

Gail Danley

Ms. Gail Danley is a graduate of McGuffey High School. She volunteers at Teen Action, Freedom School, Catnip Acres and the Church of Washington. Ms. Danley plans to attend the University of Pittsburgh at the Johnstown campus.

Brianna Kidd

Ms. Brianna Kidd is a graduate of Avella High School. Ms. Kidd actively volunteers at the Washington Hospital. In the fall, she plans to further her education at Slippery Rock University.

Courtney Korpus

Ms. Courtney Korpus is a graduate of Bentworth High School. She volunteers at the Washington Women's Shelter, Alex with Love and 84-Ag 4H. Ms. Korpus plans to attend Edinboro University and explore the science fields with a focus on the environment.

Washington Financial

Nina Manderick

Ms. Nina Manderick is a graduate of Trinity High School. She volunteers at Teen Outreach, Central Assembly of God and Fairhill Manor Church. Ms. Manderick plans to attend Waynesburg University and study Secondary Math Education.

Monica McDonald

Ms. Monica McDonald is a graduate of Fort Cherry High School. She actively volunteers at the Hickory United Presbyterian Church and the Hickory Apple Festival. Ms. McDonald plans to study Early Childhood Education at Edinboro University.

Lydia Moon

Ms. Lydia Moon a student at Pennsylvania State University at the Beaver campus. She volunteers at Big Brothers Big Sisters, McGuffy Band Camp and THON. Next year, Ms. Moon plans to continue studying Broadcast Journalism.

Shawn Mooney

Mr. Shawn Mooney is a graduate of Washington High School. He actively volunteers at the Immaculate Conception Parish, City Mission and National Honor Society. Mr. Mooney plans to attend Pennsylvania State University at the Beaver campus and study Civil Engineering.

Gabrielle Provenzano

Ms. Gabrielle Provenzano is a graduate of Chartiers Houston High School. She volunteers at SHO and the homeless shelter. In the fall, Ms. Provenzano plans to further her education at Wheeling Jesuit University.

Courtney Riggle

Ms. Courtney Riggle is a graduate of Chartiers Houston High School. She actively volunteers with the Leo Club. In the fall, Ms. Riggle plans to study Biology at Indiana University of Pennsylvania.

Washington
Financial

Katharine Shultz

Ms. Katharine Shultz is a graduate of Peters Township High School. She volunteers at the Little Lake Theatre, Campus Connections, Students Against Destructive Decisions, National Honor Society, Future Business Leaders of America, Bower Hill Elementary and Student Council. She plans to study Middle Level Education at Waynesburg University this fall.

Washington Financial Bank commends this year's scholarship recipients on their outstanding commitment to their academics and community. Since the program's inception, the Bank has awarded scholarships to 140 students. To learn more about Washington Financial's scholarship opportunities, please visit mywashingtonfinancial.com.

-END-