

AUGUST 4, 2010

CONTACT: ELIZABETH I. GUERRIERI

(724) 206-1021

PRESS RELEASE

Washington Financial sponsors Mylan Classic

WASHINGTON, PA- The Mylan Classic will be held Aug. 30 – Sept. 5 at Southpointe Golf Club in Canonsburg, Pa. It marks one of four new events on the PGA TOUR's 29-event Nationwide Tour and is expected to draw 156 Nationwide Tour professionals. Also descending on Washington County during tournament week will be the players' families, caddies, Pro-Am participants, corporate guests, television crews, Tour staff members and thousands of spectators.

The Mylan Classic provides a unique opportunity to raise funds for over 140 local non-profit organizations, and Washington Financial Bank is proud to help make this event possible. Local non-profits will benefit from 100 percent of every ticket sold to the Mylan Classic through the ANSYS TICKETS For CHARITY™ program.

With more than 110 years of service Washington Financial believes in this community, and proves it by supporting a number of local non-profit organizations and human service providers.

Tickets are valid for the entire week of championship golf as well as evening entertainment which will include Grammy-nominated country music artist Joe Nichols and special guest Eli Young Band in concert Tuesday, August 31 at The Meadows Racetrack and Casino. Also, The Commodores and special guest Tino Coury will be performing on September 4 at Southpointe Golf Club immediately following play. Log on to www.mylanclassic.com for more information.

-END-